1. Charter of Participant Rights

Under the National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS) Quality and Safeguards framework, you are at the center of every decision. Your voice, your culture, and your goals guide how we work together.

- Choice and Control

You have the right to decide what supports you receive, when and how they are delivered, and who delivers them. You can change your preferences at any time without penalty.

- Dignity and Respect

We respect your privacy, independence, individual values, and personal identity. You will always be treated as a valued individual with equal rights.

- Cultural & Linguistic Safety

We welcome and support individuals from all cultural, religious, and linguistic backgrounds, including First Nations Australians and LGBTQIA+ community members.

- Safety & Freedom from Harm

You have the absolute right to be free from violence, abuse, neglect, exploitation, or discrimination. Our workers undergo rigorous screening and ongoing training.

2. Privacy Policy & Confidentiality

We are committed to protecting your personal information in accordance with the Privacy Act 1988 and the NDIS Practice Standards.

- Collection of Information

We only collect information that is necessary to provide you with high-quality, safe supports. We will always ask for your consent before collecting sensitive health information.

- Use and Disclosure

Your information is used strictly to plan and deliver your supports. We will not share your details with third parties (like doctors or family members) without your explicit permission, unless required by law.

- Data Security

All physical and digital records are kept strictly secure. Digital data is encrypted and access is limited only to the staff directly involved in your care.

- Access to Your Records

You have the right to request access to your personal information at any time, and to ask us to correct any details that are inaccurate or out of date.

3. Complaints & Feedback Process

Your feedback helps us improve. We welcome all feedback, whether it is a compliment, suggestion, or complaint. We guarantee that making a complaint will never negatively affect the supports you receive.

- How to Provide Feedback or Complain

You can speak directly to any staff member, call our office on 1300 123 456, email us at feedback@nearcare.com.au, or use the Contact Form on our website.

- Anonymous Complaints

You can make a complaint anonymously. We will investigate all anonymous complaints fully, though we will not be able to report the outcome back to you directly.

- Our Resolution Process

1. We will acknowledge your complaint within 24 hours.
2. An impartial manager will investigate the issue transparently.
3. We will work with you to find a satisfactory resolution within 14 days.
4. We will keep you updated every step of the way.
